In addition, are you, or would you like to provide support to a disabled person? Tax planning opportunities may be available, such as the establishment of a Registered Disability Savings Plan. Persons with disabilities may also receive tax relief for the cost of disability supports (e.g. sign language services, talking textbooks, etc.) incurred for the purpose of employment or education. If you or your dependents are disabled but do not have a T2201 Form, please provide details so we can explore whether you are eligible for special credits or benefits.

Section Four: Other

- Instalments required for 2020? A Pre-Authorized Debit Arrangement is an online service-payment option which authorizes CRA to withdraw a pre-determined payment amount directly from a bank account on a specific date to pay taxes. This may help avoid penalties on late and/or missing instalment payments.
- MyCRA mobile App – This web App allows you to access and view key portions of your tax information such as your notice of assessment, tax return status, benefit and credit information, and RRSP and TFSA contribution room.

- Canada Job Grant – 2/3rds of certain employee training courses may be eligible for this grant. If interested in improving your skills, ask your employer about this opportunity.
- CRA Online Services – Account Alerts – Individuals can register with CRA to be notified by email when CRA’s record of an individual’s address has changed, banking information for direct deposit has changed, or if mail sent by CRA was returned.
- Additional provincial/territorial credits and programs may be available (such as the Ontario Seniors’ Public Transit Tax Credit).

- First-Time Home Buyer Incentive (FTHBI) – Broadly, first-time home buyers and those who have recently experienced a marriage or common-law relationship breakdown may be eligible to obtain 5% or 10% (newly constructed homes only) of the purchase price of a home under a shared-equity mortgage. The borrower(s) must repay the FTHBI (being 5% or 10% of the value of the property at repayment) at the earlier of the sale date or 25 years. Alternatively, the borrower may voluntarily choose to repay the full amount back at an earlier time without a pre-payment penalty. No partial payments are permitted. Access to the program is limited to those borrowers (all who are on title) whose total combined income is not greater than $120,000. The maximum home price depends on a number of factors, including the total combined income of all borrowers and the deposit on the property, however, in the most extreme cases, must be less than just over $500,000.
- Canada Student Loan and Canada Apprentice Loans Relief – Effective November 1, 2019, student loans will enjoy lower floating interest rates of prime (rather than prime plus 2.5%). As well, fixed interest rates will be reduced to prime plus 2% (rather than prime plus 5%). Also, student loans will not accumulate any interest during the six-month non-repayment period (the “grace period”) after a student loan borrower leaves school.

- Zero-Emission Vehicles – Individuals or businesses can now receive a federal incentive of up to $5,000 when they purchase or lease a zero-emission vehicle (on or after May 1, 2019). Alternatively, certain zero-emission vehicles for business use may enjoy a temporary first-year CCA rate of 100%. A business can access only either the purchase incentive or the enhanced CCA in the first year.
- Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) – The GIS earnings exemption currently allows low-income seniors and their spouses to each earn up to $3,500 per year in employment income without triggering a reduction in GIS benefits. Effective July 2020, the earnings exemption would also apply to self-employment income. Also, the full exemption available for up to $3,500 of earnings will be increased to $5,000 per year. In addition, a partial exemption of 50% would apply to the next $10,000 of annual employment and self-employment income beyond the initial $5,000.
